Or, Russians intercepted our delivery and are now studying the NATO round to glean whatever knowledge possible from our technology.

(That's more than 22 miles!) Click the play button below to watch the video! On that trip, temperatures fluxed more than 160-degrees, from a steamy 84.. Then, we imagine the weather balloon that powered the journey froze up and the ammunition began a parachuted fall to ground.. 5 degrees at ground level all the way down to -77 8 degrees Fahrenheit as the 9mm cartridge reached its highest point.. With that in mind, many established pistol shooters that choose 9mm as their caliber for personal protection lean toward the heavier round because of the damage it can inflict upon a target, especially when paired with a well-engineered self-defense bullet like Federal HST, Remington Golden Saber, or Hornady's Critical Defense line of ammunition.

That means a good assortment of full metal jacket bullets for plinking as well as jacketed hollow points (JHP) for self-defense use.. And 147 grain 9mm bullets Lighter 9mm ammo generally delivers a muzzle velocity of around 1,300 feet per second while the heavier rounds come in around 1,000 feet per second. Brass cased rounds from Federal, Remington, and PMC are among the most trusted rounds for most 9mm handgun shooters but you're likely to have great luck with well-known foreign brands like Wolf and Tula that manufacture 9x19 ammo with steel cases as well.. The ammo carrying rig came back to ground level, gobbled up by the branches of a tree inside a state park where our boys were able to recover it --- 41 miles west of its initial launch point. Most seasoned shooters are all too familiar with the fact that the Russians have aboard the International Space Station.. (Don't worry, the round was inert, loaded with a dead primer and no powder so if it had landed in the wrong hands, it couldn't have been used against us!) Enjoy It?.. The results our team gathered were astounding Armed with packing tape, balsa wood, and a trunk full of helium, the ammunition went on a 120,000-foot journey into the unknown over the course of several hours.. As always, bulk 9mm for sale ships for free from AmmoMan com and you'll typically find the cheapest price per round on full 1,000 round cases.. Additionally, look for a good supply of both standard 115 grain projectiles along with heavier 124gr.. Buy your 9mm ammo today the Armory We work hard to keep a steady supply of all types of 9mm ammo and 9x19 bullet types in stock and available for shooters.. Most shooters just getting their start prefer the lighter 115 grain rounds as they typically will deliver slightly less recoil than the heavier, 147 grain ammo will.. No matter what the real reason for the balloon's puncture and descent, the rig landed about four hours after initial lift-off. 773a7aa168 [Claws amp: Feathers 2 \[Xforce\]](#)
